Investigations

Georgia-Pacific Acquisition of Hudson Pulp & Paper. This merger was investigated by DOJ for antitrust implications in a number of paper and paperboard product lines.

Acquisition of Hospital Affiliates International by Hospital Corporation of America (1981). Merger of two major hospital management companies.

South Florida Physicians' Boycott (1983). Boycott by physicians to place pressure on the legislature to enact malpractice insurance legislation favorable to physicians.

Stanislaus Preferred Provider Organization (SPPO) (1984). Agreement by physician members of SPPO not to contract with any other PPOs allegedly in order to forestall the development of PPO competition in Stanislaus County.

Policy Matters The Division's position on the Health Care Cost Containment Act of 1983 (1984). This position was delivered in testimony by Charles F. Rule, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, to a Senate Subcommittee.

Letter to the Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA) (1984). This letter expressed the Division's views on certain proposals which would restrict the dissemination of information collected by Professional Review Organizations.

The Division's policy toward the health care sector in general and preferred provider organizations (PPOs) in particular (1985). This policy was expressed in a paper presented by J. Paul McGrath, Assistant Attorney General, to the National Health Lawyers Association and the ABA.

Business Review commenting on plans by the Southwest Michigan Health Systems Agency (HSA) (1982). The HSA wanted to publish rates charged by hospitals within the HSA.

Business Review commenting on a proposal by the Maryland Health Care Coalition (1982). The Coalition wanted to collect and disseminate information concerning the incentive effects of different types of insurance policies.

Letters to the ABA and State Supreme Courts (1982-1984). These letters expressed the Division's views on restrictions on advertising and solicitation contained in the ABA's Model Rules.
